Artist's Statement and Story

Please attach a short (50 words or less) artist's bio and a statement describing your work. This statement will be used in gallery and other promotional materials.

Also, please attach a story relating to your quilt or your perspective as a quilt maker. This will be used in the story portion of the exhibition. This can be a story about you as a quilt maker or an origin story about the quilt you have entered. This can be of any length, and you can include additional pictures if desired.

Signature and Release

By signing below, I affirm that I have read and understand the Entry Procedures and Guidelines and I agree to abide by them. In addition, I agree as follows:

- MAAG reserves the right to omit from the exhibition any quilts that are accepted but which differ significantly from what is represented by the digital image submitted.
- MAAG has the right to use images submitted by entrants as well as artists' statements and quilt stories in exhibit catalog or articles, ads, promotions, books websites, blogs, current event news coverage, television productions, and/or multi-media productions about the exhibit. MAAG also has permission to photograph quilts for publication, advertising or promotional use.
- MAAG provides insurance while quilts are hanging. Quilts are not covered for flood or other natural disaster. Artist is responsible for settling any claims for damage during transit with the carrier. MAAG is not responsible for any work left past the pick-up date unless prior arrangements have been made in writing.
- Entries must be available for display at MAAG for the full duration of the exhibit. No provisions will be made for early pick up of work prior to the end of the exhibit.
